

Title: The below graph indicates the different digital solutions that organisations in Australia and New Zealand are implementing to improve access to their digital assets and services.

Description:

57% organisations indicated that they use plain English

50% indicated that they adjusted text to be readable by screen reading software

46% implemented colour and contrast suitable for vision impairments

42% added captions to videos

39% created content with no flashing or flickering

35% Made their websites accessible using the keyboard alone

26% met the latest WCAG guidelines

25% adjusted website time-out

6% suggested that they were not sure if any updates were made

1% suggested that other changes were made beyond the options shared

1% said none of the above